Day of the African Child

We would like to invite all parents, carers, governors and staff to attend the finale of The Day of the African Child at Telford Infant School on Wednesday 12th June 2013 from 2pm—2.30pm.

Volunteers urgently needed to assist us keeping the library tidy and sorting books. Please contact Mrs Morris. All offers very much appreciated.

Dress Code Up Date

With the weather getting better I would like to remind you of the dress code.

Shoulders should be covered. No flip flops or trainers with wheels. No high heels or open toe sandals. Sensible clothing lengths - ie Knee length skirts / long shorts. Children must have water bottles in school. We recommend that children bring a high factor sunscreen to school in a named bottle for the summer term.

We recommend that your child wears a hat, especially one which covers the back of their neck legionnaire style.
