Sports Update

The Great Clapham Fun Run

We had an amazingly sporty day last Friday! Early Years and Key Stage 1 did laps of the playground, while Years 2 to 6 went to Eagle Rec for their run. Chrysanthos in Year 2 said, "I ran with my Dad and Ivy ran with her Dad. I did 18 laps!" Remember to bring in your sponsorship money by Monday 14th May. The money raised will go towards our new Art/Science Room.

Football Tournament

Years 5 and 6 took part in a football tournament at Champion School against 5 other local primary schools. The girls came 2nd and the boys came 3rd. Everyone played their socks off and we were praised for our sportsmanship in congratulating the other teams.

Quad Kids

On Thursday, Years 3 and 4 went to Kingsley School playing fields to compete in a Quad Kids competition against lots of different schools in the area. They did athletic events including, running, throwing and standing long jump. It was great fun! Results to follow soon...

Learning in Year 2

As part of their seaside topic learning, Mrs Fairhurst's Mum Dita came in to talk about the holidays she went on when she was little. "She went to the beach in Blackpool with her Sunday Club and she ate ice cream!" said Emilia. "She was born 2 years before WWII!" added Riley.

On Tuesday, Year 2 found dragon slime in the playground. They wrote a newspaper article about it and then used their measuring skills to make slime. Finally, they wrote instructions on how to make your own slime. Yuck!
