

Gopher Day

A group of young scientists in Year 3 joined Shrubland Street children to learn how to lead a range of fascinating investigations. The children resourced the investigations themselves and practised on one another. They are now ready to carry out these within their classes during our Science week.

