

Science Day

Our children enjoyed creating their science projects as part of our Science week. Each class took part in a range of fascinating experiments. The Head from Champion school came and led a mind boggling assembly, he then judged the projects. He commented how confident our children were when they spoke about their learning. Twelve children's projects will go to Warwick University in May to enter their Science Fair, lets hope we have some regional winners again this year.

