

The events in Manchester this week have given us cause to pause and reflect on how fortunate we are to be part of the diverse, caring community at Clapham Terrace. The children joined in the minutes silence on Thursday as we paid our respects to the victims and their families.

A huge thank you to the Rotary Club who visited us on Monday to raise awareness of the vaccination against Polio programme they support. They also provide Shelter Boxes to countries hit by disaster. We have been part of this campaign by planting purple crocus at the front of school. The purple represents the dot that is put on a child's hand so that medical staff can identify that they have received the polio vaccination.

On Tuesday Year 5 travelled by train to Stratford Upon Avon to visit the Royal Shakespeare Company and take part in a workshop focussing on Macbeth. They had a fantastic day in the sunshine!

I can't think of a better way to end our penultimate half term than judging our very own Clapham's Got Talent. There were some fantastic acts ranging from tap dancing to balloon modelling.

Baby Chicks in Year 5

The chicks are back ! Mr Filby collected some eggs from Mrs Holberton's farm. We have had eggs to incubate over the past 2 years. We are hoping once again that we can enjoy lots of lovely fluffy chicks.

The incubator is in year 5 classroom, you have to set it up by adding water to the bottom to stop the eggs from getting to hot and drying out. The incubator is heated at a consistent temperature. We are not sure how long it will take for the eggs to start to hatch but we will keep you updated.

Guardians of the Galaxy

Volume 2

Spoilers Ahead

Guardians of the Galaxy Volume 2 is the best film that has, and will exist. I recommend it to anyone that exists.

It is out of this world, literally and figuratively.

The film includes great names such as Ego.
