

Heads Up

What an incredibly successful week, both in the classroom and on the sports field! Last Friday our Rounders team won their competition and are through to the finals at Warwick University. Our 3rd year of success with Rounders are off to Edgbaston to compete in the County finals. On Tuesday we had an incredible Area Athletics event at Edmondscote. Congratulations to all the children who took part, five are through to the finals on Thursday. On Wednesday evening we met our new Reception parents. The children join us on move up day next Wednesday Year 6 will go to their new secondary schools and our children will meet their new teachers (more information to follow next week). Please note we have put in some transition meetings for parents, they are in red on the calendar to the right. Letters will be sent shortly.

Please remember the SPLAT Art Festival in the park on Saturday 15th July 2017. It would be great to see you all there.

Don't forget our Sports Morning next Thursday at Campion for Year 1 to Year 6. All welcome to support!

SILLY GLASSES DAY!!

On Thursday, everyone wore silly glasses, in return they brought in a bottle for the Summer Fair Tombola. Everyone really enjoyed it. There were lots of silly glasses that were really funny. We wore our funny glasses all day at school. We all enjoyed having silly glasses day at our school!

Rounders competition!

On Friday 15th June eight children from year 6 and 2 children from year 5 went to Bishops Tachbrook to compete in a rounders competition. The first game was against Long Itchington, we bated first and smashed them 8 ½ to 3. The next game we won 3 ½ to 11. The last game we played was the final we won 10 ½ to 4. Over all we came first.

We then played the final against Newburgh they were a really good team but we still won by two and 1/2 rounders the scores were 7 to 4 1/2 .

LEAMONHEADS AT THE PEACE FESTIVAL

On Saturday 17th and Sunday 18th Leamonheads went to the Peace Festival to sell their glorious homemade lemonade. On Saturday, Lajla, Jess, Thomas and Daisy sold lots and lots of lemonade on the HOT, HOT, HOT day! They even sold out of lemonade! They even had some competition that were an actual Business.

On Sunday, Lajla, Jess, Abigail and Daisy sold the lemonade to all the family. There is one secret ingredient which is.....

A secret so we can't tell you!

They raised £890 and sold out on both Saturday and Sunday because it was very hot weather. One man even came back lots of times and got 7 cups of refreshing lemonade!

We've even got are own Facebook Page!

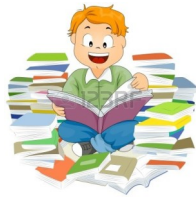

DAY OF THE AFRICAN CHILD

On Friday the 16th June year 3 went to Lillington School for day of the African child. They met other schools like St Patricks and someone from are partnership in Bo.

The class took part in a range of activities. Including drums and the story telling. They met Matt Weston, the MP for our local area. He is also year 5's class governor.

Year 3 had an amazing time celebrating the day of the African child.
