

Heads Up

The week began with an assembly by Matt Black, a poet of 40 years and author of Goblin in the Fridge, who shared his favourite poems with the children. He then did workshops with Years 5 and 6, who wrote their own poems entitled "If I were the one in charge...". Both classes really enjoyed the session and picked up many tips from Matt to further enhance their own poetry writing.

On Wednesday we had our Mothers Day Lunch which was a really special occasion. Thank you to all the mums, carers, aunties and grannies who came along and also to our fantastic cooks for a lovely meal and to our staff for serving it!

The Year 2 SATs meeting was really well attended, again thank you for taking the time to come in and find out how you can support your child.

Sporting activities this weekend included netball and football matches, a gymnastics competition and a cross country event. CTCN Reporters will update you on our performances in the next newsletter.

Remember it's Sports Relief week next week!

Polli:Activist News

Recently, the Polli:Activists have been busy restoring the Nature Area, as it needed a tidy up after the winter months. They have been removing plastic, dead plants, twigs and leaves (for compost). The children have also created leaflets asking Years 3 and 4 to help make bird baths and feeders and on Tuesday they did just that, creating apple and lard bird feeders. If you have any ideas for the Polli:Activists, please don't hesitate to get in touch. If you want to get creative at home, feel free to make a bird feeder or design a logo for us! ## Calling all Regency Runners!

We know that a number of parents, carers (and even staff!) are running in the 10k Regency Run on 15th April. We will be setting up a justgiving page to allow any runners to raise money on behalf of Clapham Terrace School HSA, if they wish to join us. It would also be great to have a photo of all of us before (not after!!) the race, so if you are running please let the office know! Run like the Claphams!
