What an amazing half term! The children have taken part in so many fantastic activities and learning opportunities. We have had a very musical week, with children playing the keyboard and violin in assemblies. Year 5 participated in a Greek day where they dressed up and performed a play and yesterday we had our amazing talent show. We're all looking forward to a well deserved rest! Remember that we have a teacher training day on Monday 4th June. See you back at school on Tuesday 5th.

Clapham Terrace Variety Performance Show

On Thursday, Clapham children put on a spectacular show for their fellow pupils. There were 23 acts involving over 60 children. The judges were really impressed by the standard of the performances.

Thank you very much to Katie from Champion and Libby and Chloe, former Clapham pupils, for helping with the judging. Libby said, "It was great fun and all the acts were brilliant!"

Well done to Lily Duncan, the winner, for her fantastic hula hooping dance routine! Congratulations also to Parnika and Sadie, our runners up.

Year 5 Greek Day

On Tuesday, Year 5 had their Greek day. They dressed up, choosing between being Greek citizens in tunics (the boys) and pelos (the girls), or soldiers. Luckily nobody came as an Olympic athlete (because they were naked!). Mrs Whitfield, an expert on Ancient Greece, ran the day. She talked about the Olympic Games and Greek myths and then explained the structure of Greek plays. Year 5 performed a play about Cynisca and the Horses of Sparta. As it was class photo day, we had our class photo in our Greek clothes!

STEM workshops

Engineers (including Arthur's Mum!) from local firm Ricardo, came in to run STEM workshops with Years 3 and 4. They looked at how to engineer cars to make them safer in crashes by adding different materials to the bumper. They tested the cars using a ramp. "I added plastic cups and toilet rolls to cushion my car and it worked well." said Parthibh.

Athletics afternoon

On Monday, Key Stage 2 went to St Anthony's for an athletics event to choose the team to take to Edmondscote District Athletics final on 7th June. Everyone had a go at throwing, racing, doing the high jump and long jump. "It was really good fun," said Annabel in Year 5.
