

The community are enthusiastic and involved in developing and sharing learning

Children are inspired through a range of learning environments

Children and staff work with schools to share good practise

Ensure the high standard of teaching and learning is maintained

Rich vocabulary is used to raise standard of literacy

The children are using their scientific skills across the curriculum

Clapham Terrace

Science at Clapham Terrace is interactive, engaging and inspiring; not only within the school but also in the wider community.