

Key knowledge
Capital Cities	Canada: Ottawa USA: Washington Mexico: Mexico City Guatemala: Guatemala City El Salvador: San Salvador Nicaragua: Managua Costa Rica: San Jose Belize: Belmopan Honduras: Tegucigalpa Panama: Panama City
Climate	Arctic to desert
Major Countries	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> USA Canada Mexico Panama
Landmarks	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Niagara Falls Statue of Liberty Grand Canyon
Top three busiest airports	Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport Los Angeles International Airport Chicago O'Hare International Airport

Key vocabulary
Desert	Any large region that gets very little rain each year
Government	A group of people that has the power to rule in a territory, according to the law
Journey	Travel from one place to another
Leisure	In a way that is not hurried, when there is free time available
Marsh	One type of wetland, which means that the land is often covered by water
Regions	An area of land that has common features
Resort	A self-contained establishment

Know how to...
Develop and embed learning on world countries.
Locate the key physical features on maps, globes and digital computer mapping
Extending their knowledge and understanding beyond the local area.
Using a range of resources to locate and describe key human and physical features

