

We've had a thoroughly enjoyable third week in school, helped enormously by the beautiful weather. A lot of our learning has taken place outside as you can see from our twitter feed and the photos overleaf. Our new Reception children have enjoyed lunch in school for the first time this week; we are incredibly proud of how well they have coped with their transition into primary school.

Our rotas and systems are embedded to the point that we can introduce more clubs next week for our set bubbles.

Learning has been hugely productive all week and those parents that have not received their phone consultation this week, will be contacted very shortly.

Having certain year groups coming straight into school in the mornings is working very well. If there is a message to be given and the class teacher is already in class, there will always be a member of the Senior Leadership Team on the playground with a green message book. Please make sure that your message is recorded in this book for us to action as part of our pastoral care.

Thank you for working with us on our staggered start and finish times. If I could remind you to leave the playground as quickly as possible as we have a very tight turnaround between each bubble and after care.

Democracy in action at Clapham

Children's voice is very important and has been a key focus in the first couple of weeks, with the appointment of Class Ambassadors, Learning Detectives, Reading Ambassadors, Science Ambassadors, Eco Warriors, House Captains and the Junior Leadership Team. Mrs Miles will be sharing these next week in her celebration assembly.

Last Friday, children voted for Junior Leadership Team (JLT) representatives for their classes and today for their House Captains. Well done to everyone who stood for a position.

We were very impressed by your confidence and how articulate you were!

Reading Challenge

On Monday, the reading challenge was relaunched. It's a great opportunity for children to increase their vocabulary and improve their punctuation and grammar. There are 8 different genres for you to complete, such as modern fiction, mystery, magazine, poetry and more. As well as reading all the books, you also have to write a short summary. It might also help if you make yourself a vocabulary book which you can regularly refer to. To reward you there will be prizes (Clapham personalized!) such as rulers and badges and maybe, maybe even a special trip! By Shreeya, CTCN

Health & Safety

Please can you ensure that all long hair is tied back. This is for practical reasons as the children are very active in the school day. It also protects against the spread of head lice!

When you are picking up your child from after school clubs there will be yellow spots at the front entrance and Rockets door to help with social distancing.

To safeguard children and adults at pick up time, it is important that no parent-cars enter the carpark before 4.45pm.

Central Warwickshire School Sports

This week Clapham took part in the first virtual School Games competition of the year. Amazing football skills and data recording.

Go Clapham!

Year 5 visit Coventry

Year 5 had a fantastic time on their WW2 trip to Coventry. They enjoyed their workshop, learning about rationing, transport in the blackout and evacuees, all from a West Midlands' perspective.
