

What a fantastic week we've had, it really does feel like we've achieved so much over the last 5 weeks. Tim Brink, a local street artist, was amazed by Year 4's creativity as they worked collaboratively to produce their mural. Ricky thoroughly enjoyed working across some classes; the level of engagement from all the children was astounding and we will be sharing this with you over the next week. Our talent show auditions have been superb and we're looking forward to our Clapham's Got Talent show next Thursday.

The children's effort, resilience and teamwork during the run last Friday was remarkable. We have also launched our new PSHE scheme this week; the children have had a daily lesson supporting their wellbeing and looking at friendships and relationships. Look out for the parental information that will be coming out soon all about our new scheme.

Enjoy watching Year 4's fantastic assembly using the link below:

How to stay safe on online games like Among Us

In games like Among Us, you can play with friends or online with people that you do not know. It is important for young children playing the game to know how to stay safe.

What to do to stay safe online

- Do not give people you do not know personal or family information, like your name, birthday, address, or town you live in.
- Do not tell people information about other people, like friends or family, without their permission, especially if it is mean or rude.

If you follow these two rules, you can help yourself, and friends, stay safe online. It is important that you report any issues, even minor ones like someone calling you something that you do not like. You can leave the game but make sure that anything that someone says that is nasty or unpleasant does not affect you in any way that may cause a problem.

Clapham's Got Talent Auditions!

This week, our school has had auditions for our annual talent show. There were golden bells, and many amazing acts. The talent show itself will be happening on the 27th May, which is very soon, so get practising!

We have some very special guests, who are just waiting to come and judge all of your fantastic talents!

The children and staff are busy preparing as this is a huge event. Although parents and carers aren't able to come and see the show due to Covid-19 restrictions, we are going to film it to make it even more special!

Magnificent Mural

On Monday, Tim Brink- a famous local street artist - came into school to paint a mural with Year 4. The previous week, Tim had a planning session with the children and they decided on the design together. It's a wonderful abstract image full of lively, colourful shapes.

Y5 Assembly

On Friday 14th May, we watched the video of Year 5's assembly about storytelling and what books they like. Throughout the assembly the children talked about stories, tales and myths.

They even read out stories that they had written in their books whilst others acted them out. The stories in their books were inspired by 'The Boy who cried Wolf'. The children read the stories with such clear voices so everyone could hear everything that was happening in the story.

They also told tales around a campfire and some of the children danced to the song 'The Climb', whilst the rest of the class sang. The song is about how a story is made. They also sang, 'The Story of my Life' by One Direction.

Ricky's Dance

Reception loved their dance session with Ricky. They were Hi Hi Ho dancing pirates!

Brilliant Bowls Challenge

On Thursday, Year 5 took part in a Bowls challenge organised by CW School Sport. They used recycled materials such as plastic bottles as equipment. The Well-Being Ambassadors had made a useful video to help explain how the challenge worked:
