

We've reached the end of what has been a fabulous half term; the children have been amazing in so many ways. Let's hope that next half term we can get parents and carers back in school to see this first-hand.

Our talent show was pretty spectacular yesterday; our overall winners were: Nico, Shambhavi, Annabel, Sam and Daisy. Well done to all the children who took part—this in itself was a huge achievement!

We've ended the term on a real high, dancing with Ricky today, as well as our thoroughly enjoyable Break the Rules day!

Below, please take the time to read World War One inspired poetry written by two of our Year 4 children, following on from their fantastic assembly last week. Such a high standard of work.

Take a look at our achievement assembly using the link below:

I do hope that you get to enjoy some family time next week in the sunshine. Remember that Monday 7th June is a teacher training day and the children return on Tuesday 8th June.

Year 4's WW1 Poetry

Doom of Peace

Where guns smoke we lie,
Where shells blow we lie,
No tomb for comfort.

Gas attacks unknown,
Drowning in a sea of blood and mud.
Where we lie we die.

The rapid rattling machine guns,
Send men and horses alike,
Daily deaths, ragged breaths,
War of lies.

Where the guns smoke we lie,
Where the shells blow we lie
No tomb for comfort.

Trench In Rotten Ruins

Monstrous machine guns,
Booming bombs, scary screams of the dying ones.

Rotten wood, rat rampages,
All the mud in different stages.
Squeaking rats, lice all black biting
and making itching.
Soldiers from the front line die all around.

Gas attacks kill the unfortunate to wear their masks.
Planes fly in the air, giving the soldiers a scare.
Smashing shells superbly slaying.
Every turn of the trench was a soldier's death.
As the fear of it hangs in the air.

Ancient Greek Day

To close their topic learning, Year 5 and 6 took part in Greek Day. Year 5 recreated Ancient Greek theatre, performing the Twelve Labours of Heracles in their 'theatron'. By Robert, CTCN Reporter

Do you have any loose change lying around the house? Please bring it in for our red buckets.

We've still got a way to go covering CARL! Thank you!

All Stars Cricket

Last Friday, Year 1 and Year 2 had a special visit from All Stars Cricket. They learnt the basics of the sport, including batting and fielding. The coach was very good and everyone enjoyed the session; hopefully it has inspired them to carry on playing cricket.

As well as practising batting and fielding, they also played some fun cricket based games! At the end everyone got an All Stars wrist band to take home with them. It was a good experience for everyone. By CTCN Reporter Joe

Clapham's Got Talent 2021

On Thursday, the pupils of Clapham Terrace put on a spectacular show, entertaining us with their admirable talents. The majority of acts were performed live, but some, that required special equipment were filmed by the performers and the audience watched them on screen instead. Everybody thoroughly enjoyed the show. Amelia, a performer in Year 6 commented this, before she performed: 'I'm a bit nervous, but I'm sure that my partner Rosie and I will be fine.' We had some very 'special' judges joining us, to watch and comment on the performances. Well done to all the performers!
